PRELUDE

WELCOME

LENTEN BREATH PRAYER

by Diane Faries

- L: God of all creation, you formed us from the dust and breathed life into us. Our breath is your breath. Your spirit moves within us and gives us life.
- C: Too often we hold our breath, we are so focused on the immediate. Too often we feel choked by the tasks crying out for our attention.
- L: Remind us, Creator, that we are yours, that every breath comes from you, that you sustain us and nourish us from the same earth which you used to form us, and to which we will one day return.
- C: Remind us, Eternal Spirit, how to breathe. Fill us deeply with your powerful presence, open our mouths to inhale your goodness and your grace.
- L: Remind us, O Redeemer, that you have set us free from everything that separates us from you. As we pause now to pray with each breath, help us to let go. Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing your sins to God's grace. Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing the assumptions that blind us to God's truth Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing the desire to consume things that cannot fill you Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing yourself from the power of false idols Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing the fears that lead you to doubt yourself and God Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, releasing your need for control. Breathe in the breath of life. Breathe out, and let go of all that separates you from God.
- C: Amen.

GATHERING HYMN O Lord, Throughout These 40 Days

- C: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

- L: Holy God,
- C: In this season of contemplation, help us to recognize that you revealed yourself in Jesus, who walked among us and was handed over to be crucified. May we be strengthened by his presence among us today. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

JOHN 19:1-16a
Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and striking him on the face.

Pilate went out again and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him." So Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!" When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God." Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you and power to crucify you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin." From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against Caesar." When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover, and it was about noon. He said to the Jews, "Here is your King!" They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

L: The Gospel of the Lord!

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

At Our Savior's Lutheran Church, we believe children and youth are an essential part of our church today — not just the future. Our Children, Youth & Family ministries are designed to nurture faith, build friendships, and help young people grow in their relationship with Jesus.

We offer opportunities for all ages to learn, serve, and connect with God and one another in a welcoming and inclusive community.

We love having children in worship — wiggles, giggles, and all! At Our Savior's, children are a vital part of our worshiping community. Here are some ways your child is invited to participate during worship:

- Visit the Prayground Table next to the pulpit
- Roam the sanctuary and explore the space
- Grab a Worship Bag located behind the A/V booth
- Visit the Nursery (*see note below)
- Help lead the greeting when the pastors invite children forward
- Come forward for the Children's Message

Children are welcome to move freely between these spaces throughout the service. We're so glad your family is here and we welcome the opportunity to support you as you live out the promises made at your child's baptism. *Our nursery is self serve as we find volunteers.

Bigger, Better Hunt - April 1

Wednesday, April 1 is our annual Bigger, Better Hunt at COW. This is a joint middle + high school event that takes place from 6:00-7:30pm. We will break into groups and go out into the community with a starting item such as a marble or clothes pin. Groups will try to trade their item for something bigger or better. We will all come back to share our trading journey and 2 groups will win prizes; one for the biggest item, one for the best item. This is a great confirmation group event! There will be regular high school COW at 7:30pm.

There is no official RSVP required, but let Nick Gilbert know if your student plans to attend so he can determine how many adult drivers will be needed. All groups will have an adult; students will not be allowed to drive other students.

This event will need a handful of adults. All volunteers must pass a background check and complete our children safety training (about 2-3 hours that can be done in multiple sessions). If you are unsure if you have already completed this training, please contact Nick Gilbert.

SKILLS TO DISAGREE BETTER

With the polarization in our country and churches hindering healthy relationships and civil engagement, you are invited to learn skills for disagreeing better. Braver Angels has developed a national reputation for helping to bridge the divides we so often experience.

- ⇒ April 13, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Depolarizing Ourselves
- ⇒ April 20, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Skills for Disagreeing Better

At each session Pastor Jeff Thiemann will guide us into seeing the image of God in all whom we meet, and treating ourselves and others with the respect that such an identity promotes. How do we "see" the other side? What may be going on inside us at these times? How can we listen better? How can we develop more constructive ways to engage? This event is free (there is a $10 suggested donation) Please call the Roseville Lutheran church office to register at 651-487-7752, their address is 1215 Roselawn Ave W, Roseville, MN 55113.

The OSLC Quilting Ministry recently presented Vern with a quilt in appreciation for all he does at Our Savior's. Vern generously gives many hours of his time helping around the church and making sure things are taken care of behind the scenes.

The quilt was given as a small token of gratitude for his dedication, willingness to help, and the many ways he supports our church community. We are thankful for Vern and the time and care he continuously gives to OSLC.
